

Dansk
Ornitologisk
Forening

The NGO Perspective

Jan Ejlsted

Director

Dansk Ornitologisk Forening

BirdLife Denmark

Dunlin (Almindelig Ryle)

Dansk
Ornitologisk
Forening

Status 1999-2002

Distribution:

24% of sites in 1970 (92%
on Isles)

Population:

-62% compared to 1970

Population 2008:

150 pairs

Ruff (Brushane)

Dansk
Ornitologisk
Forening

Status 1999-2002

Distribution:

15% of sites in 1970

Population (females):

-89% compared to 1970

Population 2008:

65 females

Black-tailed Godwit (Stor Kobbersneppe)

Dansk
Ornitologisk
Forening

Status 1999-2002

Distribution:

39% of sites in 1970 (half of the population on 3
sites)

Population:

+4% compared to 1970

Population 2008:

550 pairs

Partnership

Dansk
Ornitologisk
Forening

2003

First public-private partnership agreement
between Ministry and DOF

2006

Second agreement

2010

Third agreement?

2005

Common action plan

- LIFE-project
- Restoration activities
- Network
(Engfuglearbejdsgruppe)

?

Restoration activities

Tipperne:

- a. 8 km blue border fencing
- b. 42 ha saltmarsh restored

Agger Tange

- c. 8 km blue border fencing
- d. 55 ha saltmarsh restored
- e. Hydrology improved

Restoration activities

Dansk
Ornitologisk
Forening

Borreby Mose:

f. Management Plan

Bøvling Klit

g. 210 ha saltmarsh restored

h. 40 wet ponds created

Ulvedybet

i. 50 ha saltmarsh restored

The Danish Bird Protection foundation (Fugleværnsfonden) - Partner REMAB project-

Dansk
Ornitologisk
Forening

- Cofinancing 20.000 euro
- Actions at Nyord:
- Restoration of saltmarsh habitat -cutting of reeds
- Reconstruction of natural hydrology
- Fencing of 3 km blue border zone
- Chair of the established grazing society (2006-2009)

Perspectives

Dansk
Ornitologisk
Forening

Climate Change

Agricultural Practices and Policies

Knowledge-based Management

Commitment from the public

Funding availability

Common European Initiatives